Your Stuff Works so WELL!!

Oh my GOD!! Your stuff works soooo well!! I haven't had any kind of contact with my ex, and she is already leaving emails, text messages, calls, all that! She is saying it was a mistake and that we should get back together and telling me how much she MISSES me.

I just got off the phone with her, and as much as I would have loved to say to her how much I missed her and wanted her now, I stood my ground and told her, that the best thing for us right now is to spend time with our families and friends, and that later we could consider giving this a shot. All of this in a calm tone of voice by the way. Anyway, I will still celebrate my birthday this weekend only with friends and family, keep on going to the gym (cause I used to go a lot, but started slacking out just to spend more time with her, look where that got me? lol), do some yoga, and simply work on myself so whenever we get back together not only will she have me back, but she will have that same positive, full of positive energy Carlos that she fell for.

Thank you so much Michael, I feel like I owe you so much more!

"Your Program WORKS!"

Hi Michael!

Been a while...but wanted to let you now that last weekend my Fiancee who dumped me in August was back in my arms last week, telling me how much she loved and missed me and making plans or the future.

I asked her why she feels like this now and guess what she said ?

She said, 'I saw the old Steve again...the one who was confident and made me laugh...and all the time I craved'.

She had been out a lot and let her hair own and you were so right...this behaviour ran its course.

The thing is....its been 9 weeks since the split and i had dated a few women...one of which i have grown very fond of and has booked a lodge for a night away for us next week...so i now have a decision to make that is the toughest i have faced in my life. Both are making plans for my Birthday next week

1. I have my ex.... younger prettier and the history and memories together but a track record of dumping me with small issues between us too detailed for this email

2. The new Girl...lots of mutual attraction and who I feel I have more in common with, but being new there is obviously no history

Your programme WORKS ! and the advice you gave me has been both essential in helping me through the initial loss and awesome in its success and I would not be the same person now without it.

Thank you

M3 Success Story:

I'm really planning to win him back!

Hi, thank you for your advice it really helps me to be who I am. I confess that I have a rocky situation with my long distance relationship right now. I do love this guy a lot but I have doubts about us. I'm really planning to win him back because I want him to be my man for the rest of my LIFE. Thank you again!!

-Yuri

M3 Success Story:

Your Program Worked!

I just want to say that your program worked, not all the things i followed to a "T." I did use the "no contact" rule, and gave her space to let some of the resentment she felt towards me dissipate. We had our first date, went to a Calgary Flames game, and it went well.....maybe too well. i know that staying the night might have been too much too soon, but it was hard to resist.

Anyways i want to thank you, for the ideas of the new clothes on the first date, and keeping a good attitude, i know it helped a lot, for her to see the man she used to love. even if it was more night, all this was worth it, and if it is forever then i am eternally grateful.

Definitely looking forward to getting much help

Hi, This is Ryan again and I just wanna say prior to this conversation. I feel like exhausted at all means to figure out what I was doing myself and how to get this girl back. You know, you look for tomorrow trying to get somebody, but I really take a ways of living for now and trying to get my dignity back for one. And number two is really just trying to embrace the fear. And I'm definitely looking forward to getting much help as I possibly can in regards to this minute in the day and come out to be a stronger person and I'm looking forward to help in getting more help with the class in the 101. Thank you again.

M3 Success Story:

I am so grateful for your tips and videos!

Because of your videos and tips I have slowly started to work things out with my ex. Before she used to not even talk to me but now we are talking and we are working through our problems. She is currently with someone else and I have let her know that I am happy for her if she is happy with this other person and that I would stop chasing after her, to which she retorted "You dont have to chase me anymore." She is still with him but I think she might end things with him. I am so grateful for your tips and videos. Thank you so much for helping me get back the girl that I love.
